

Dorothy Height, the godmother of the Civil Rights Movement..."

—President Barack Obama

GODMOTHER

A Music and Dance Tribute to Dorothy Height and the Civil Rights Movement

Nicole Cabell

B.B. King

Deeply Rooted Dance Theater

Taj Mahal

Chicago Children's Choir

The National Council of Negro Women
the DuSable Museum of African American History and Karz Productions are proud to present

GODMOTHER: A TRIBUTE

To educate, inspire, and empower a new generation

Tuesday, February 1, 2011 at 7:30 pm

Harris Theater

Millennium Park, 205 E. Randolph Drive, Chicago, IL

FEATURING

B. B. KING

TAJ MAHAL

NICOLE CABELL

KIERRA SHEARD

CHICAGO CHILDREN'S CHOIR

DEEPLY ROOTED DANCE THEATER

CERQUA RIVERA DANCE THEATRE

- Tickets: $50, $70, $90
- Harris Theater: call 312-334-7777
- www.harristheaterchicago.org/buytickets

Members of Partnering Organizations

Receive a 20% Discount:

$40, $56, $72 with Code: Height98

Partnering Organizations

Center for Black Music Research,
Columbia College
DuSable Museum of African American History
Chicago Office of Tourism
Chicago Public Schools
Chicago Teachers Union
Chicago Urban League
Cook County Bar Association
Delta Sigma Theta,
Chicago Alumnae Chapter
Facing History and Ourselves
God First Ministries
Illinois Judicial Council
Knights of Peter Claver, Inc.
& Ladies Auxiliary
NAACP, Chicago Westside Branch
National Black MBA Association Inc.,
Chicago Chapter
National Black Prosecutors Association
National Council of Negro Women,
Chicago Section
National Education Association
Rainbow PUSH Coalition
Teach for America
Teaching Tolerance
The Black Star Project
YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago

Net proceeds from GODMOTHER will be donated to the Chicago Section of the National Council of Negro Women.

Sponsored by:

For more information email info@karzproductions.com www.legacyandlessons.com/tribute.html